Information on liability and copyrights

No guarantee is assumed for the completeness and correctness of information on these web pages. To the extent that reference is made on this home page to information offers originating outside these pages, the author explicitly does not adopt such content as his own.

Texts, photographs and graphic images, along with the layout of these pages, are protected by international copyright law. Their unauthorized use and reproduction and/or communication of their individual contents or of full pages will be prosecuted under both criminal and civil law. Under German Civil Law this may result in preventive injunctions, compensation for damages, transfer of ownership or destruction of the reproduction equipment and public proclamation of the verdict. Court injunctions will be secured by means of fines.

Exclusion of Liability

Contents of the Online Offer

The author assumes no guarantee whatever for the up-to-dateness, correctness, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against the author in relation to damages of a material or intellectual nature due to the use or non-use of the information provided or due to the use of erroneous and incomplete information are excluded in all cases, provided that no intention or gross negligence on the part of the author is demonstrable. All offers are subject to change without notice and are without obligation. The author explicitly reserves the right to change, supplement, or delete these pages or the entire offer in part or in whole or to cease their publication temporarily or permanently without special notification to this effect.

References and Links

A legal liability would arise in case of direct or indirect references to other Internet pages ("Links") which are not within the author's area of responsibility only if the author were aware of their contents, had the technical means to prevent their use if they are illegal, and this could reasonably be expected of him. The author declares here explicitly that at the time links were included no illegal contents were recognizable on the pages being linked. The author has no influence whatever over the present and future designs, contents, or copyrights of the pages linked and otherwise connected. For that reason he explicitly distances himself herewith from all contents of all linked and/or connected pages which have been changed after establishment of the links. This statement applies to all links and references within this Internet offer as well as to entries made by others in guest books, discussion forums, and mailing lists created by the author. Sole liability for illegal, erroneous or incomplete contents, in particular for damages which arise from the use or non-use of such information, lies with the person offering the page to which reference has been made, not the person who merely refers to the respective publication via links.

Copyright and Trademark Law

In all publications, the author has made every effort to respect the copyrights of the graphic images and texts used and to use graphic images and texts created by himself or graphic images, photographs, and texts which are in the public domain. All brand names and trademarks named in this Internet offer which may be patent-protected by others are subject without limitation to the provisions of the applicable trademark law in each case and to the ownership rights of each respectively registered owner. Mere mention is not grounds for assuming that brand names are not protected by the rights of third parties! The copyright for objects published and created personally by the author remain solely with the author of these pages. The reproduction or use of such graphic images, photographs and texts in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without the author's explicit agreement.

Legal Force of this Exclusion of Liability

This Exclusion of Liability is to be regarded as part of the Internet offer containing a reference to this site. Should parts or individual passages in this text not or no longer be in correspondence in part or in whole with prevailing laws, the other parts of the document shall remain unaffected with regard to their contents and validity.

Data Protection

Because we wish to promote trust in the Web on the part of users, we openly describe our manner of dealing with person-related data. In the following you learn what information is gathered and how it is dealt with.

Explanatory Remarks on Data Protection

You will be informed in advance if your name, address, or other data of a personal nature are required. If you decide to put personalized data at our disposal via the Internet - e.g. for purposes of written correspondence - these data will be conscientiously treated in accordance with the rigorous provisions of Germany's Federal Data Protection Law (BDSG).

When our Internet page is accessed, we receive user data which are saved for security purposes and may make an identification possible (for example the IP address, the date, the time of day and the pages which are opened). These data may be evaluated by us in order for us to familiarize ourselves with user behavior and assemble statistics. In so doing, we use every means to observe the stringent security standards of the German Telecommunication Services Data Protection Law (TDDSG) and the German Data Protection Ordinance for Telecommunication Companies (TDSV). No personal evaluations take place. We reserve the right to statistical evaluation of data records which remain anonymous. You can find further information on the topic of data protection in the Federal Republic of Germany here:

www.bfd.bund.de.

Communication of Person-Related Information to Third Parties

Should data be communicated to service providers during the processing of data for orders placed, these data are bound by the BDSG and other stipulations of the law. Should we be required by law or by court order to do so, we will communicate your data to the required extent to those who are authorized to receive such information. We will not communicate your data to third parties for other purposes without your explicit agreement.

Security

We store your data on specially protected servers in Germany. Access to them is possible only for a few persons authorized by us who are involved with the technical, business or editorial care of these servers.

Right of Cancellation

If you order us not to use your personal data for further contacts, or to delete them, we will proceed accordingly. Data which are indispensable for processing an order or for business purposes are not affected by cancellation and/or by deletion.

Use of Cookies

Textual information is gathered, filed in "cookies", and stored on the user's hard disc drive in a special ASCII format file (cookie.txt) during an online session. The user's www-browser monitors where the cookie is saved. The cookies contain information which is sent back to the server upon the next online visit. In each case, they can be read only by the server which previously stored them.

We use cookies only when they are indispensable for user functions and/or facilitate navigation of the web site. The information is not made available to any third party, since cookies are used only for the above-named purposes.

Most browsers are set to accept cookies automatically. However, this function can be deactivated at any time in the browser. You can set your browser to notify you whenever cookies are sent.
